

Chris Pond - Lived in Loughton since 1981 and has challenged the Local Plan for the last 4 years, especially building on Jessel Green. The Conservative council own it, so with land at £3 million an acre, it's no surprise they want to cash in. My aim is to speak up strongly to protect your open spaces and to speak up for Broadway traders as the council has increased rents and given them extra competition. Yes, we need housing, especially starter homes, but we don't want over-dense building to spoil our environment. I ask for your vote on 3 May so I can carry on speaking up for you - to defend your open spaces and shops

Michael Owen - Moved to Loughton permanently in 2015. The attraction was green open spaces and a strong community spirit. I enjoy sports, cycling, golf and football in a Dads' team. I like the Forest and vital green spaces for families, children and dogs. Joining non-political LRA was a way I could stand up for what we all love about our town. My wife and I are busy with a baby and 2 young children at primary school. After university, I spent 13 years working in London. I'm still a commuter and suffer overcrowding on the Central Line daily. I want to continue the good work of Cllr Leon Girling, whose job was re-located.

Loughton's under threat, but LRA always defends YOUR amenities and OUR environment.

We need housing and starter homes for children of Loughton families, but not built on our green spaces, not high rise and not garden grabbing building.

1021 homes in the Conservative Loughton Plan would be harmful town cramming.

Our infrastructure can't take this increase. The Central Line and roads are unable to cope now - we have traffic queues and air pollution daily. Where will future children play and new schools be built? Bus services are cut yet more homes are planned.

Conservative Cllrs would build on our green open spaces - We know you don't want this - please vote for your two LRA candidates and help us stop it.

People elected to local councils under national political labels follow party lines

Non-political & independent - Loughton Residents Association continually campaigns for residents. LRA holds 34 Council Seats - We say: Residents and our town first. Voting locally for a national party is a wasted vote
